The month of Rajab dawns upon us with great blessings and a means of spiritual gains.

Just as the sun rises at the horizon spreading its unmatched light, a figure shines in the hearts of the residence of Deccan namely, Hazrat Khwaja Peer Sayed Badruddin Ali Shah Chishti, commonly known as Peer Faqir Muhammad Shah (R.A) of Ahmednagar, India. Guiding hundreds and thousands of people onto the right path, and towards the real purpose as a creation that is connecting with the creator Allah Almighty.

Hazrat Khwaja Faqir Muhammad Shah (R.A), a great Saint of nineteenth century of the Chishtiya Tasawwuf order. Hazrat's forefathers arrived in India from the blessed soil of Medina Shareef for the propagation Islam and service towards mankind during the ruling of Qutb Shah of Golkunda, who showed great amount of respect towards Hazrat's family for being amongst the Saadaats.

It is next to impossible to describe the status and ranks of these dervishes of almighty. People used to try and imitate Hazrat (R.A) in the form he portrayed himself. Been a personality of such a high caliber was so down to earth, humble and generous. His service to Islam and mankind may not be matched and still continues to serve the seekers of truth in the form of numerous books written by Hazrat (R.A), some of the following are:

- ❑ Shish Majalis
- ❑ Mureed Nama
- ❑ Qutbe Madaar
- ❑ KuhnKhan-e-Mehboob
- ❑ Risala Hasil-e-Sama and many other inspiring works.

Finally after the illness which lasted for almost four months, at the age of 90 on Friday 6th Rajab 1362/9 July 1943 after Fajr Salah, he (R.A) was ushered into the realm of divine beauty and was laid to rest in Ahmednagar, India, where a beautiful Shrine exists, which till today serves as a center of divine showers. Rajab had been valuable since the time of Prophet Adam (A.S). It had been sin to war in this month. This month had been respected by all Ummats (Nations). Rajab means majestic, great, honoured, valuable.
