

Pearls of wisdom

The final discourse of Hazrat Khwaja Moin-ud-din Chish'ti to his Mureeds (Disciples).

Love all and hate none.
Mere talk of peace will avail you naught.
Mere talk of God and religion will not take you far.
Bring out all the latent powers of your being and reveal the full magnificence of your immortal self.

Be overflowing with peace and joy,
and scatter them wherever you are
and wherever you go.

Be a blazing fire of truth,
be a beautiful blossom of love
and be a soothing balm of peace.

With your spiritual light,
dispel the darkness of ignorance;
dissolve the clouds of discord and war
and spread goodwill, peace, and harmony among the people.

Never seek any help, charity, or favours
from anybody except God.
Never go the court of kings,
but never refuse to bless and help the needy and the poor,
the widow, and the orphan, if they come to your door.

This is your mission, to serve the people.....

Carry it out dutifully and courageously, so that I, as your Peer-o-Murshad, may not be ashamed of any shortcomings on your part before the Almighty Allah and our holy predecessors in the Silsila (chain) on the Day of Judgement.

- Once a person asked Hazrat Abu Saeed Abul Khair (r.a), where can one find Allah Almighty? Hazrat Abu Saeed Abul Khair (r.a) replied "Forget yourself, then only will you find Allah Almighty.
- Hazrat Sulaiman Taunswi(r.a) has said "knowledge is like a open sword, if its possessor has the capabilities to use it and act in a proper way then the enemy (shaitan) could be over powered, or else the enemy (shaitan) will use the same tool to ruin that person.

- Hazrat Khwaja Moin-ud-deen (r.a) has said “Of all the worship that pleases Almighty Allah, the most is the granting of relief to the humble and the oppressed”
- Few sayings of Hazrat Ali (r.a).

The tongue of a wise man lies behind his heart.

The most happy is he to whom God has given a good wife.

Lead such a life that when you die people will mourn you, and while you are alive they long for your company.

The right of freedom of speech consists in speaking the truth.

Sorrow makes a man old before his time.

He who indulges in jokes and loose talk loses a part of his wisdom.

He who does not know should not be ashamed to learn

The advice of old men is dearer than the bravery of young men.

Like the feathers of a peacock, falsehood might look very attractive, but is as ugly as [as are the] feet of a peacock. Falsehood has no legs to stand upon.

Hadrat Ali(r.a) described the household of the Holy Prophet(s.a.w) to be like stars, in that if one star sets another star rises.
